A Diplomatic Conversation: President Franklin D. Roosevelt & Japanese Emperor Hirohito

Instructions: Create comments from the document, A Situation of Extraordinary Importance. Write "imaginary" responses from Hirohito to FDR, since no reply to FDR's message exists. (Note the date of President Roosevelt's message. The Emperor, even if time permitted, would probably not have replied personally to the President, because of the very traditional nature of Japanese society. In addition, Hirohito knew of the planned attack on Pearl Harbor.)
